Submission of transcripts:

- Request official transcripts to be sent only to OTCAS
- Do not request official transcripts to be sent to Colorado State University
- Do not request official transcripts to be sent to the Department of Occupational Therapy

Transcripts for college-level courses from US and Canadian institutions:

- Transcripts are required from every institution you have attended even if courses are listed on another transcript of an institution to which you have transferred.
- Transcripts are required from every institution you have attended even if courses do not apply to prerequisite requirements.
- College transcripts are required for all college level courses taken while in high school. The transcript of the credit-granting institution is required.

Transcripts for study abroad US institution coursework:

- If study abroad courses were sponsored by the institution in the US and the courses with credits and grades are listed on the US transcript, transcripts from the international institution are not required.
- If courses with credits and grades do not appear on the US transcript, unofficial transcripts are required from the international institution. These unofficial transcripts can be sent to the Department of Occupational Therapy at Colorado State University.

Transcripts for degrees received at international (non-US and non-Canadian) institutions:

- Course-by-course equivalency report from an international transcript evaluation service must be received by the department by application deadline date.
- Official international transcripts are not required to be sent to the department.
